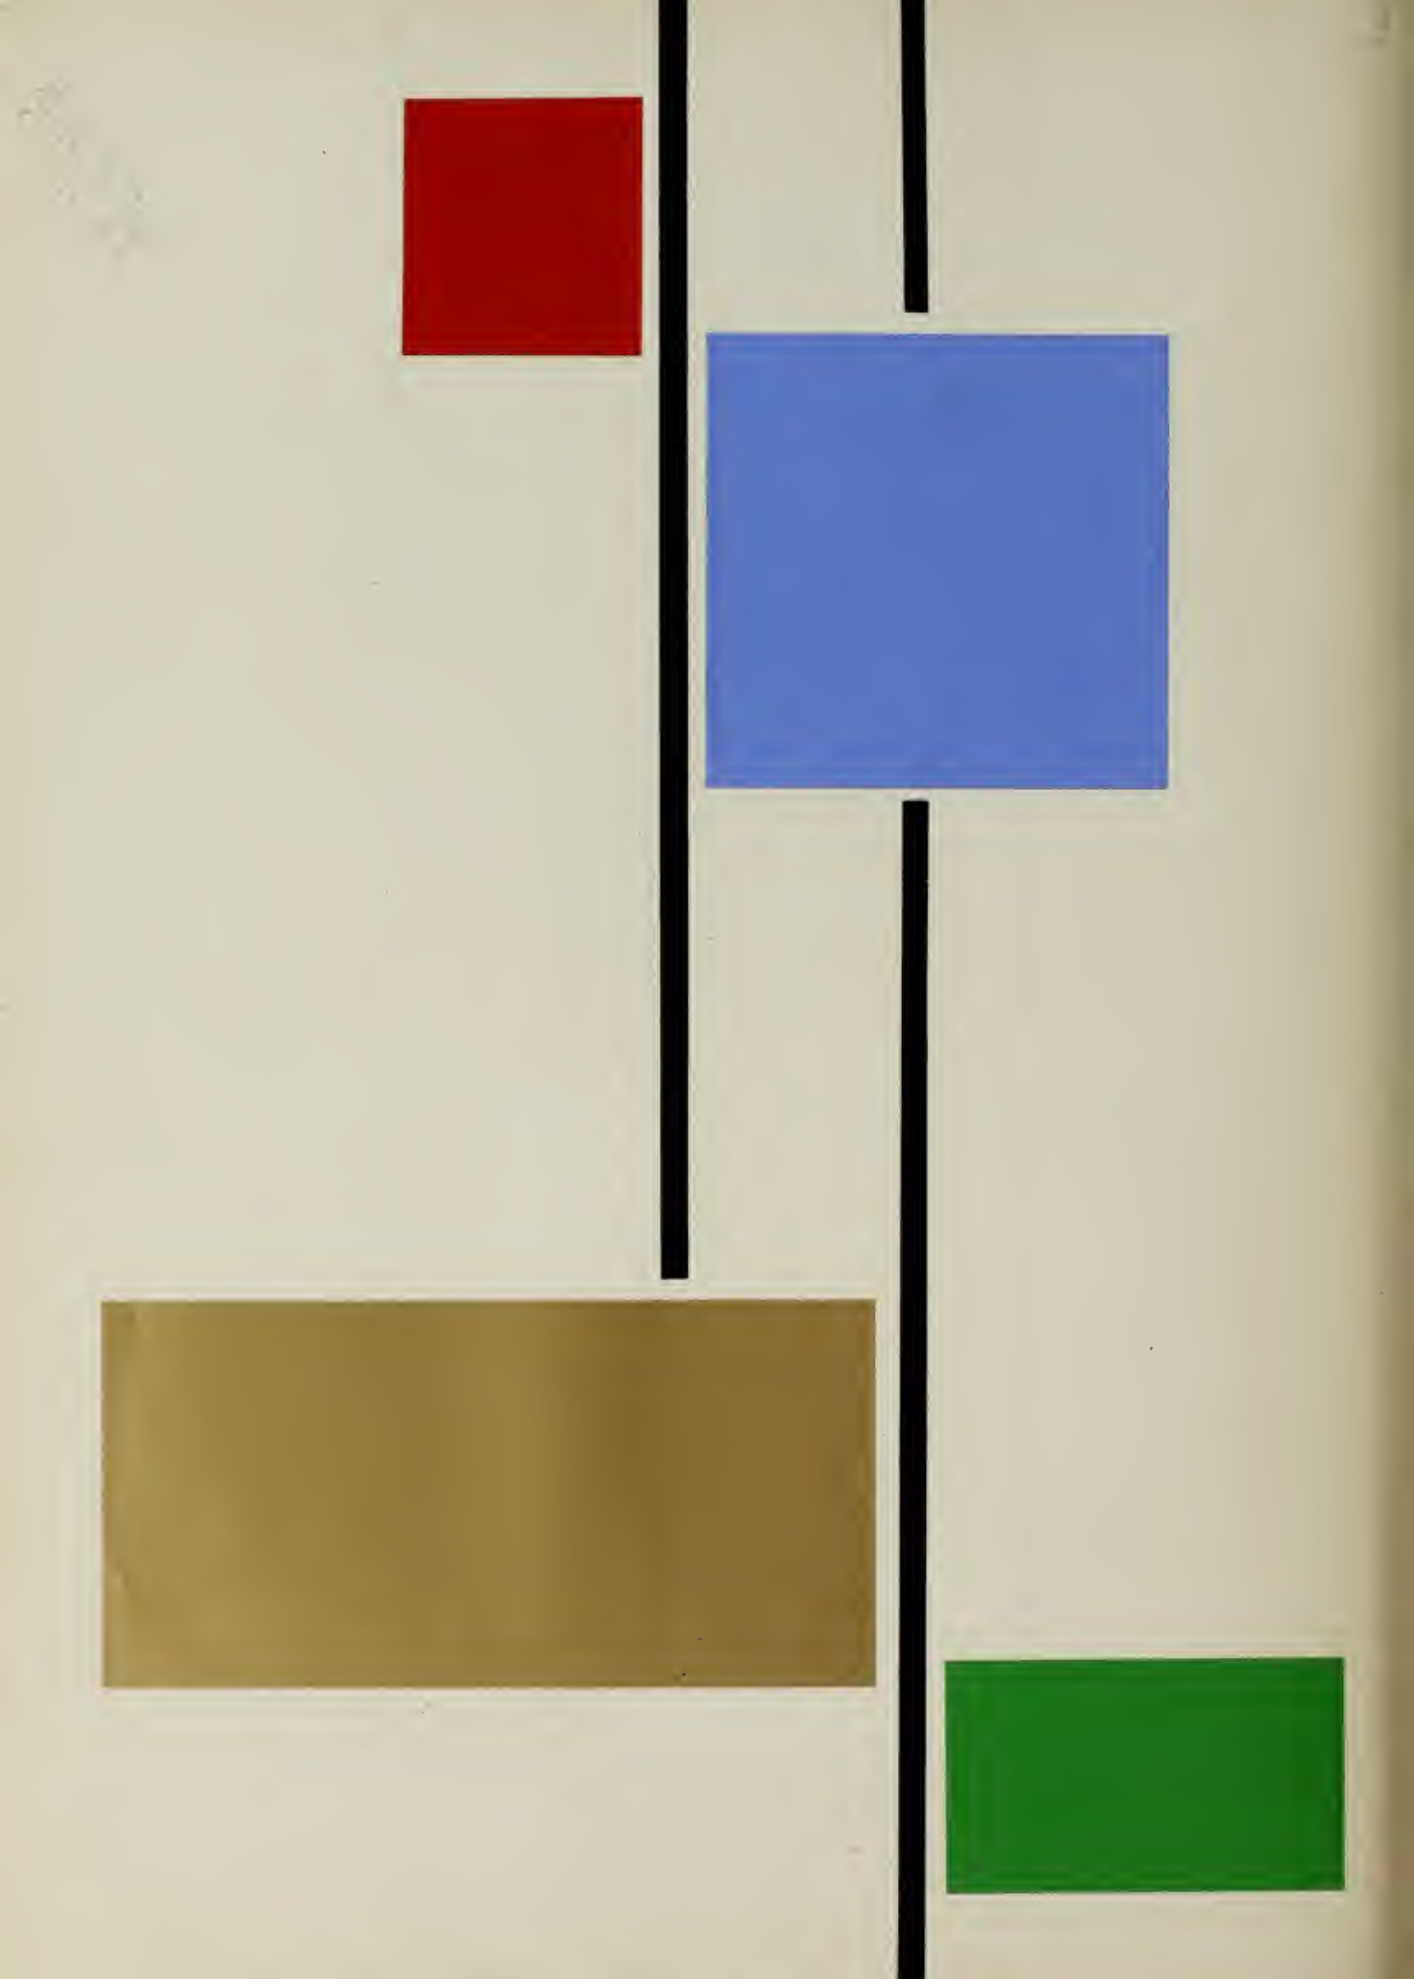
NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-TWO

SENIOR CLASS PUBLICATION

SHARON HIGH SCHOOL

SHARON, MASSACHUSETTS

VOLUME XXII



"The whole is equal to the sum of its parts."

In our sophomore year at Sharon High School, the class of 1962 learned this axiom in geometry class. It was a logical, universal concept that anyone could testify to as a practical truth. But the true meaning of this mathematical reality became clear only when we faced graduation as a senior class. Then, we remembered the parts: students, faculty, classes, activities and athletics; the whole: Sharon High School. Each is separate and important, but we of the class of '62 also remember another axiom, one to which we have dedicated ourselves in the past four years—"The whole is GREATER than any of its parts."

DEDICATION

Ta yau, Otto Latzel, we dedicate the Marsengold 1962. Yau are the symbal af Sharon High Schaal, the symbal af friendship and belanging. Each student is a part of you, and you are a part of each student. By yaur friendly personal attitude tawards all, you have tied aur class and the schaol together. By warking lang haurs in the schaal building, yau have made its appearance something which anyane cannected with Sharan High can be proud af.

Far these reasans the class af 1962 dedicates its yearbaok to you, Otto Latzel, because you mean sa much to all af us.

FACULTY

WITH DEEP APPRECIATION

Mr. Herman H. Richardson
Superintendent

In appreciation af Mr. Richardsan's pasitian as Superintendent af the Sharan Public Schoals for the past twelve years, we are pleased ta distinguish ourselves as the first class to complete our educational development fram Grade 1 thraugh Grade 12 under his capable jurisdiction. During his administration the town has seen a remarkable grawth in its schaal papulatian, leaving the Class af 1962 the last small class ta graduate under him.

As the first class to have completed four years at Shoron High School with Mr. Dowd as principal, we wish to acknowledge our earnest appreciation for his able leadership and administration of students, faculty, recreation, and educational growth. In the past four years Shoron High School has progressed much in educational aims, in dignity, and in the general appearance of the institution. We are pleased to credit him with the integrity of our school.

MR. JAMES J. DOWD
Principal

. . . FOR DEDICATED SERVICE

Mrs. Lillian Reardon

Mr. Everett Downing

We the Class of 1962 would like to express our sincere appreciation to our class advisors Mr. Downing and Mrs. Reardon. Starting with our Freshman Dance "Mardi Gras," through the Sophomore Hop, class rings, and "Dutch Treat," they steadily guided us towards the largest social function of the school year, our Junior Prom "Moulin Rouge." This, our final year, they have worked harder than ever before on senior pictures, the "Soccer Ball," "Ask Any Girl" our Senior Play, and on all the little details which are leading to Graduation.

ADMINISTRATION

The administration, aside from our superintendent and principal, consists of our vice-principal, Mr. Francis P. Roman, and our Guidance Department: Mr. John O. Barrows and Miss Marion Haley and their respective secretaries. It is the function of the Guidance Department to help each pupil make the most of his high school career and plan his future.

SCHOOL SONG

You may talk about your colleges
Fair Harvard and old Yale
And all the Universities
Whose banners fly the gale;
From the azure flag of Cambridge
To old Oxford's royal blue
Which fly in far-off England
Over hearts both brave and true

From the sunny shores of Frisco
Way on down to Portland, Maine;
Away out to the Philippines
And way back home again.
There's no college, university or school could ever show,
So grand, so true, so fine a crew
As students that we know.

Chorus:—

For we're the jolly students of old Sharon High,
Sharon High,
Our colors are maroon and gold,
We bear the stars and stripes of our America
rah, rah, rah; rah, rah, rah!
We're the students true and bold

(Repeat Chorus)

SOPHOMORES

The signposts all point to great accomplishments for the Sophomore Class. They have so many capable, intelligent students to take the advance courses, and many athletically superior boys and girls for varsity. Their social activities also mirror their imagination, as the Sophomore Hop, "Mother Goose Goes to School," testified. From The Scarlet Letter to Caesar, band to biology, French to formulas, and Latin to logarithms, the Class of '64 ran the full gamut of its year's activities with whirlwind speed and efficiency.

COUNCIL CALENDAR

The Sharon High School Student Council is an active and unifying organization. It is representative of the entire student body, consisting of representatives from each homeroom, the vice-president of each class, and two Senior members-at large. Under the direction of faculty advisor Mr. Liberman and President Robert Keeling, the Council sponsors many necessary and worth-while activities in the school, as well as having the important function of maintaining liaison between the students and the faculty.

Throughout the year the Council maintains the supply room in the lobby, and provides student greeters for every period of the day. Among its many other functions, it has the responsibility of distributing honor passes and student identification cards.

Sharon High has an active and efficient Student Council that it can be proud of.

Drama Club Members Learn Design,

It's only make-believe.

Aspiring actresses and actors and behind-the-scenes artists gained valuable experience in the Dramatics Club this year, under the helpful direction of Mr. Newton and Miss Sanford. Besides helping to present The Valient, Sunday Costs Five Pesos, and the Drama Festival Play, the Dramatics Club met to help its members become familiar with set design, make-up, and acting techniques. In addition, members may earn points toward becoming Thespians by working on crews of school productions. Speakers, such as little theater members, who spoke on their experiences, gave the budding Barrymores many professional tips.

The art of public speaking, ever admired and respected, is being further cultivated by the members of the Sharon Debating Club. Through participation in many rounds of interscholastic debates, the members learn the fundamentals of speaking, research methods, thinking on their feet, and rebuttal.

Their tournaments have carried them throughout New England, amassing an impressive number of successes. Further proof of their prowess is the club's high standing in the National Forensic League, an honor society for debaters.

The varsity debating team, ably coached by Mr. Foley, follows a rugged schedule of meets, while the freshmen, under the direction of Mr. Riley, learn the basics and also take part interscholastically.

The ten members of the French Club meet every other week to increase their knowledge and understanding of the French language. Mr. Chappuis conducts the meetings and passes on to his French students interesting information about France, the French people, and their way of life.

This year the member have particularly enjoyed playing the game "Password"—an exciting game when played in English, and a fascinating and challenging game when played in French. Another activity has been the reading of a play by Moliere, "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme." Activities such as these have stimulated an enthusiastic interest in the French language.

Venus, Goddess of Love.

Every other Friday morning, the Junior Classical League—an organization for anyone who is, or ever has taken Latin—meets in room 201, ably advised by Miss Chase. The morning's program often includes games played in Latin or a talk on some phase of life in ancient Rome. Each year the club puts on a Roman banquet and each member wears a toga for the occasion. Another annual event is the Regional Latin Convention held in May.

The members of the League, through their enthusiastic support keep Latin quite alive in Sharon High.

Training For Future Household Tasks

For all those interested in household "hobbies", the Home Economics Club is the perfect preparation. Here, a future homemaker may learn how to sew a simple or not-so-simple garment, and, as she practices fundamental stitches on the sewing machines, gain some proficiency in the realm of sewing. There is also some cooking done, when the time is available, and the members are urged to prepare, eat, and clean up a meal entirely by themselves. This practical club is especially attractive to college preparatory students who have few other means to learn these tasks.

ASK ANY GIRL

As in years before, the Senior Play was presented in November to a nearly filled auditorium. This year the class chose the famous "Ask Any Girl," a comedy which centers around a man-chasing girl in New York. About two thirds of the class participated in the play, either in the actual acting or in the necessary committee and backstage work. Their long hours resulted in a most memorable production.

GIRLS' VARSITY CLUB

The theme of the Girls' Varsity Club should well be "service," for the members are constantly working for the benefit of the school and town. Besides setting up and carrying out intramural programs in basketball, volleyball, and badminton, the girls also sell potato chips at basketball games, bookcovers every morning, and hold car washes annually. These activities not only provide service, but also funds for a donation to the student activity scholarship and for payment of varsity sweaters, an innovation this year.

BOYS BASKETBALL

Skill, teamwork, and spirit combined to make this year one of the most successful for the "Eagles." Supported by strong reserves, the starters, Chuck Sweetman, Bobby Keeking, Jeff Glover, Donny Arbuckle and Mark Sturman, fought, scored, and won under the expert coaching of Mr. Davenport. As a result of long hard hours of practice, both offensive and defensive plays ran off like clockwork, leaving a delighted audience and increasing school spirit. The Jay Vees, training ground for the Varsity, foretold success in years to come with their great team record.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Above all, enthusiasm marked the Gladiators' games as they fought for their new coach, Miss Mueller. Skill was combined with knowledge and practice, as plays were formulated and techniques learned and improved in many weary, but worthwhile hours after school. The season left the girls with a good record and keen sense of spirit and good sportsmanship.

Precise Coordination

The boys' and girls' gymnastics have firmly established themselves as a source of pride to Sharon High School. The hard work and effort which go into practices are rewarded not only by the precision with which the clubs perform on the rings, horse, parallel bars and ropes, but by the enthusiasm and interest of the spectators. The highlight of the year was the Annual Physical Exhibition held in April at which both clubs gave an outstanding performance.

BASEBALL

BOYS BASEBALL

Early in April, the baseball field became the center of increasing activity. The varsity team, under the intensive coaching of Mr. John Blanchon worked hard improving its fielding, batting, and pitching. The Sharon squad completed thirteen games in the Hockomock League. Among the highlights of last year's season were the wins against Foxboro, and Stroughton. Although the team did not experience a very successful year, the players were enthusiastic, and demonstrated a competitive spirit and good sportsmanship.
